Reports from Department Heads –

A. Holloway –The financial Report for the month of March is in your folder. I spoke with representative from USDA they were going to contact Chad Griffin at Stillwater to start working on grant for the repair of Broad Street sewage lines. Stillwater has also started fill out the application for GEFA. We are planning on applying for a low interest loan to help pay for the repairs of the sewage line on Broad Street.

Mr. D. Davis – AIMS is in phase II of repairs on Broad Street they are hoping to finish p by end of the week. I am still working on the Policy and Procedure Manual and will get back with the Council at a later date. The City has thirty-six (36) businesses – All except 1 has paid for the 2019 Business License. I will be getting bids to repair the front of the Police Department. Police report was given out to the Council. At this time the City has six (6) part-time Police Officers including the Chief. The Officers are Palmer, Davis, Mitchel, Scott, Campbell and Yochum.

We have the store on Cotton Street that is applying for a Business and Alcohol license. There is over 100 feet from the local Church doors.

Motion by: F. Brown
Motion by: N. Seay

To accept the application for Business and Alcohol License for store on Cotton Street.

Motion Carried – 6-0

I would like to recommend two City workers that have been very impressive in their work ethics. They are M. Robinson and T. Davis. I would like to recommend $2.00 raise for Mr. Robinson and $1.00 raise for T. Davis.

B. Mallory – How about the budget – Can we afford it? B. Cullefer – While we are talking about raises Mrs. Holloway worked how many months in two positions? Holloway – 7 months.

Motion by: F. Brown
Second by: D. Wilson

To give M. Robinson ($2.00) and T. Davis ($1.00) per Mr. Davis recommendation.

Motion Carried – 6-0

Police report - Given by Mr. Davis - Report in folders.

Fire Chief Report – Absent

New Business –

D. Wilson – Can we go into Executive Meeting to discuss City Attorney? B. Mallory – I agree. Mayor – I don't think we can go into Executive Meeting for City Attorney. Mayor – Do you have any idea who you all would like to replace him with? Need to look around before we do anything.

Right Spot – Presentation was given at the workshop in reference to locating the sewage, gas and water lines. Mr. Davis – Recommended taking Plan B in the program that they offered. Mayor – Can they do Plan A then in a year go up to Plan B. M. House – Would he want all the money at one time? Mr. Davis = The City has a problem locating all the buried gas lines that can be a hazard. We can let them know thirty days before cancellation with no penalties.

Motion by: M. House
Second by: B. Mallory

To go with Plan B with Right Spot

Motion Carried – 6-0

Old Business -

Building Permit fees – was reviewed by the Council.

Motion by: B. Cullefer
Second by: F. Brown

To accept the Building Permit fees that was recommended by Mr. Davis.

City Service – The City has to give Harp and Assoc. notice in September 2019 to cancel the contract with them and then go with City Service. Mr. Davis highly recommends going with City Service.

Council input -

F. Brown – How many Chief of Police applications does the City have? Mr. Davis – Right now, we have nine applications for Chief of Police. Mayor – Can everyone find time to come by City Hall and pick up folder with the applications so they can review them?

B. Mallory – None

B. Cullefer – None.

N. Seay – None

D. Wilson – None

M. House – Will the road be through by Friday? D. Davis – they will with the exception of the asphalt. The street in front of Lily's is in very bad shape.
